

Til the Trumpet

As the calendar turns to November, we have four wonderful Sunday morning worship opportunities to dig deep into God's Word as we continue to "take up the sword of the Spirit." After much prayer, I know the Lord has led us to spend this Thanksgiving season examining the book of Ruth. Our series is entitled, Loyal Love.

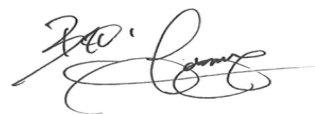

I share with you often how the Lord continues to teach me so much through my time spent with Him in the study and preparation of teaching and preaching His message each week. The preparation for this series is certainly no different. As we spend time understanding more of Ruth's story in these coming weeks, I believe with all my heart, if we will be open to the Holy Spirit, the impact it will have on our lives and our understanding of God's loyal and redeeming love for you and I as His children will be profound.

The Hebrew word Khesed describes a sense of love and loyalty that inspires merciful and compassionate behavior toward another person. It is a combination if you will of unconditional love, generosity, and enduring commitment. The inspiration behind Khesed is born of the relationship between the two parties. In the book of Ruth, Boaz describes Ruth's kindness toward him and Naomi as Khesed (Ruth 3:10).

Our Lord's covenant relationship with us will always result in His loyal love and faithfulness, His Khesed. So often, we as His children are unfaithful to Him, but our Lord's heart, the Khesed that He loves with, is His generous compassion, grace, and mercy.

The acts of Khesed are ones that are always performed freely, and as we journey together through Ruth this November, we will see loyal love in the life of Ruth and understand more how we can show that type of love from our own lives.

God's loyal love to us should serve as motivation for us as His followers to share what we have been so richly given. I look forward to spending time together each week gleaning from His word a greater understanding of His Khesed for you and me!
