

As the Fall approaches and the season changes we begin to look back on what the bulk of this past year has brought. The Lord has richly poured out His blessings! We've seen salvations, baptisms, and new church members. Lives have been changed on mission trips. We've promoted children to the Youth Group and Pre-schoolers to the Children's Dept. "Calling out of the Called" is also alive and at work in our church with Bro. Joel surrendering to part-time ministry as our Student Pastor.

So many blessings...yet still room for growth. Sunday School and small groups are excellent opportunities for us to dig deeper! Please make every effort to be plugged in to a class and group. Currently we are in need of a full-time Worship Pastor, commit to pray for our newly formed committee! Faithful giving provides for all our ministries. Thank you! Thank you!! That being said, please remain faithful as we still aren't meeting budget. Our Vision Team has worked diligently over the past year, and has presented a plan to the finance committee that will require an additional financial commitment that we will be discussed with the church in the New Year.

Certainly there is more we could add to both lists....but something else I believe we should ask is, "Why for the past few months has the Lord been both challenging us and encouraging us?" Everything I've listed and even the ones I haven't is vitally important, but there's certainly a reason the Lord has been leading us where He has.

It's in our very nature to get caught up looking at the surface. We focus on what first catches our eye and then we stop there and don't keep going. We camp out on the "outside" and never get to the "inside" of what there is to see.

This past week as we were looking at Ehud, we were also reminded of how David was chosen to be king. "For the Lord does not see as man sees; for man looks at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart." 1 Samuel 16:7b NKJV

This fundamental principle is at the center of every character study in the scriptures. It is directing us as believers to prioritize the internal qualities that please God! Through this journey, the Lord is seeking to speak directly into our hearts because we've been stopping at the first glance of what we see of situations and circumstances, when it's the inside where His truth is waiting to be found.

I believe the Lord has been stressing for us to be encouraged. Be encouraged by both the strength and weaknesses of these individuals so that we can see more clearly how the Lord intends to work in and through us, the Church, His Church..... the ordinary, imperfect individuals that we are!
