

'Til the Trumpet

As I sit at my desk, immersed in commentaries, Bible studies, scripture references, web pages, and even hardback books dedicated to celebrating the Resurrection, I find myself repeatedly drawn to certain passages. Through diligent prayer, seeking guidance on how our church family should celebrate this season, a profound realization has emerged: Have we been missing the Messiah?

We aim to teach and preach about the Triumphal Entry, the night in the upper room with His disciples, the long night of prayer in the garden, the arrest, and the illegal trials. We want to understand the people's reactions to Pilate's spectacle and the cruel beating before He carried the cross down the Via Dolorosa. It's Easter, and we must discuss His death on the cross and the miraculous rolling away of the stone, revealing the empty tomb. As I type this, I'm overwhelmed by the thought that amidst all this preparation and study of these crucial historical moments, have we missed the Messiah? I invite you to join us every Sunday morning this month at 10:30 am for our worship service as we explore our Resurrection series, "Are We Missing the Messiah?"

Additionally, I encourage you to attend Bible study every Sunday morning at 9:15 am. We offer classes for all ages, providing a wonderful opportunity to build relationships through fellowship with our church family and deepen our relationship with Christ as we study His word together. Our Bible studies are designed to cater to different age groups and interests, ensuring that everyone can find a class that resonates with them. Whether you're a child, teenager, adult, or senior, there's a place for you to grow in faith and knowledge. Each class includes discussions, at times activities together, and most importantly, insightful teachings that help us connect with the scriptures on a deeper level.

Don't miss out on the blessings the Lord has in store for us this Resurrection season!
