

REJOICE

Terri and I count it as a blessing to be able to join the Dalraida family for this Christmas season. This time of year should be joy-filled though many will experience sadness and sorrow. What can each of us do to make this Christmas joyful for everyone we encounter?

- 1. Remember the reason for the season. This is a familiar saying that needs to become a daily focal point. Spend each day remembering and reflecting on the One who was born to give new birth to all. Celebrate the new life we have in Christ!
- 2. Read His Word and respond to His goodness and grace. Stay constant and consistent in reading His Word. Sing, pray, and journal thanks for the gift of God in Christ Jesus. Let your worship be sincere and heartfelt.
- 3. Show generosity and serve others in love. Look for ways to give generously of your time, talent, and treasure. Offer help to someone hurting or in need. Give encouragement to everyone you encounter. Give because of the great gift we received in Jesus.
- 4. Pursue reconciliation and forgiveness. Make peace with others because you have peace with God.
- 5. Share the Good News of Christ’s birth. Tell others about the hope found in Jesus. Boldly proclaim the message of salvation.
- 6. Practice contentment. Focus on what God has provided rather than what you lack. Celebrate His sufficiency.
- 7. Prioritize spending time with your family and faith community. Spend intentional time with loved ones, nurturing relationships and building up others.
- 8. Pray for others. Intercede for those in need, the lonely, and the lost. Ask God to bring the light of Christ into their lives.
- 9. Live in humility. Remember Christ’s humble birth in a manger. Choose to put others first and serve quietly.
- 10. Seek the wisdom of God for the coming year. Ask God how you can be used for His purposes beyond Christmas. Commit your plans and desires to Him.

May the joy and peace of Jesus Christ fill your heart this Christmas, as you reflect on His birth, worship in gratitude, give generously, forgive freely, serve lovingly, and share His hope with the world.
