Rejoice

July is a month when we celebrate the birth of our nation and its enduring legacy of freedom. As our country celebrates 250 years of independence, we reflect on the blessings of liberty and the sacrifices made to secure them. This milestone invites us to consider the profound meaning of freedom itself.

While we cherish the freedoms we enjoy as citizens, Christians recognize that the deepest and most enduring freedom is found not in earthly declarations, but in a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. The Bible teaches us that true freedom is liberation from the bondage of sin: "So if the Son sets you free, you really will be free" (John 8:36 CSB). Apart from Christ, humanity is enslaved by sin, unable to live according to God's perfect will: "Don't you know that if you offer yourselves to someone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of that one you obey—either of sin leading to death or of obedience leading to righteousness? But thank God that, although you used to be slaves of sin, you obeyed from the heart that pattern of teaching you were entrusted to," (Romans 6:16-17 CSB). Sin is a direct violation of God's Holy Word, separating us from Him. Yet, through His grace, God offers forgiveness and new life to all who repent and place their faith in Jesus: "For you are saved by grace through faith, and this is not from yourselves; it is God's gift—not from works, so that no one can boast" (Ephesians 2:8-9 CSB). This spiritual freedom brings peace, purpose, and eternal hope.

Let us rejoice in the freedoms God has graciously granted us, both as a nation and more significantly, as individuals redeemed by Christ. May we always seek to honor Him in all our liberties and share the liberating truth of the Gospel with those around us.

July and August sermons will feature the parables of Luke 15 and Matthew 13.

Please note: Deacons Meeting and Quarterly Business Meeting on July 19.

Children's Camp is July 20 – 23. Pray for our children and leaders during this week.

Rejoice!
Daniel
