

REJOICE

The Dalraida difference. Terri and I were introduced to the phrase but now have experienced it first-hand. What a joy it has been to serve alongside you as we seek to make a difference for the Kingdom.

We have started the process of learning names and attaching them to the right person. You are doing your part in being patient and helping us get to know you better. What a wonderful, loving church family. Likewise, you have gotten to know us. By now, I hope you have discovered the key word for my life: Rejoice! It comes from Luke 10:20 . . . "rejoice that your names are written in heaven." There is no joy or rejoicing unless and until you are in Christ. There are moments or periods of happiness, but joy comes in Him.

Let me offer some suggestions for the New Year.

- Memorize this passage for January 2026: Rejoice always, pray constantly, give thanks in everything; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus (1Thessalonians 5:16 – 18 CSB).
- Submit to His will as prescribed by this passage so that you will do His will.
 - Rejoice Always – submit to Him and avoid the inclination to let circumstances rule your life. Do His will by actively aligning your perspective with God's will. In all things, triumphs or tragedies, He is conforming you to the image of His Son, which is a cause to rejoice (Romans 8:28-29).
 - Pray without ceasing – this is a submission of your self-sufficiency. When we pray continually, we acknowledge our need and His Lordship over life. Do His will through prayer by actively pursuing His purpose for you. Prayer keeps you in step with the Spirit so that your steps are guided by God.
 - Give thanks in all circumstances – this profound act of submission means we are relinquishing our right to question and complain by trusting that God is always at work in our lives. As we give thanks in all circumstances, we are actively doing His will by honoring, trusting, and obeying Him.
- Seek to increase in all areas of Christian living: prayer, Scripture reading, studying His Word, stewardship of resources, increased participation in church-life, intentional evangelism, serving others, and becoming a disciple who makes disciples.

I look forward to rejoicing and pursuing His will together at Dalraida Baptist Church.
REJOICE!
