

The 318: FOCUS (Beach Retreat)

What to Bring

- Bible, pen, something like a journal to write in
- Toiletries
- Wash clothes and at least 2-3 towels (for shower and beach use)
- Tennis shoes, flip flops or sandals
- Sunglasses, a hat, sunscreen
- Swim trunks for guys, One piece or tankini for girls
- Pillow and sleeping bag or sheets and a blanket
- A dirty clothes bag of some sort
- Spending money (including money for two meals on the way there and back)

Rules

1. No alcohol or drugs permitted. If a student is found with either of these, their parents will be called immediately and asked to come pick them up.
2. All participants must stay in the designated areas of the retreat area.
3. Any emergency must be immediately reported to an adult.
4. Respect and take care of our living space. Any damage should be reported immediately.
5. Participants must be on time for activities.
6. No boys are permitted in girls' rooms, and no girls are permitted in boys' rooms.
7. Lights out will be at 11:00PM.
8. Leave the facilities better than you found it; clean up after yourself.
9. Students must be in groups of 3 when walking around the retreat area. No guy and girl can go off by themselves.
10. I reserve the right to tell ANY youth (male or female) to put on clothing depending on the modesty of their swimwear or the situation present. Guys swimwear is limited to swim trunks (no speedos or really short swim trunks), and girls swimwear is limited to a one piece or tankini (no bikinis).
